White Wine

Chardonnay

This wine is considered as one of the most successful grape variety in the world due to its ability to adapt climates and soils throughout the world and the versatility that it offers the winemaker as a blending component in Champagne too.

Most chardonnay has a strong affinity with oak, Californian styles can be exotic buttery and full bodied, Chilean or New Zealand are dominated with citrus flavour. The chardonnays are best served with poultry, games or even by itself!

Sauvignon Blanc

This particular grape variety is one of the most expressive variety.

Sauvignon Blanc from Loire Valley are very lively, however the ones from New Zealand is very well-known for being assertive. New Worlds winemakers have been increasingly using screw caps to preserve the aroma and freshness.

Semillon

This grape variety is almost exclusively associated with Bordeaux, France.

Most significantly it is the grape of Sauternes, the famous sweet wine made from shrivelled noble-rot-grapes.

Semillon usually is known as a full-bodied wine which can develop an enticing rich lime fruit character and are capable of ageing impressively.

Pork and light fish dishes can be paired with the Semillon.

Viognier

This wine is very well-know coming in from the northern Rhone, it performs best in warm climates, producing a full-bodied wines easily recognized by their intense perfume and apricot fruit. This wine is recommended with any of our Pork Dishes.

Riesling

We all know that Riesling is best made in Germany, the grape usually ripens early and prefer a cooler climate, however Riesling has been successfully adopted in Australia as well as in New Zealand.

Most of the seafood dishes from the Japanese Restaurant will be great to be paired up with this particular wine and cheesy dishes.

Our prices are quoted in 000 (thousands of Rupiahs) and are subject to 21% governmental tax and service charge.
