Expedia Recognises Padma Resort Bali's Excellence

Legian, Bali, 5 May 2011 — Expedia Insiders' Select list released on Thursday named Padma Resort Bali at Legian one of its top-ranked hotels globally.

The list named only 500 hotels from 130,000 properties worldwide offered by Expedia, a prominent online travel company in the world. It acknowledges hotels from around the world that consistently deliver excellent service, great overall experience, and notable value.

Renowned for its strategic location, friendly personnel, and wide-ranging facilities, Padma Resort Bali at Legian is one of the most popular hotels in the island holiday destination of Bali, Indonesia. Following the completion of its 2010 renovation, the 409-room resort sees consistently high occupancy rate of over 90 percent since the beginning of this year to date.

Established in 1991, Padma Resort Bali at Legian is set on 6.8 hectares area in the popular tourist district of Legian. The facilities range from the two swimming pools, a well-equipped fitness centre, a kids club, to a beauty salon and a spa run by the world-renowned Mandara Spa. The resort also runs seven food and beverages outlets. These features ensure that every guest's preference can be catered for.

The 2011 Expedia Insiders' Select list is compiled based on the more than 500,000 annual Guest Reviews collected by Expedia, combined with a value rating and the local market expertise of more than 500 Expedia employees in local markets world wide.
